Mark,
We had a pretty wild senior year for a couple of juniors. You're a little bit too crazy to live much longer than 19 or 20 - I'll come to your funeral. Be good this summer and don't get pregnant or anything! your friend
Andy

P.S. see ya in the Navy mate!

mark,

Well, what can I say?
Nothing much, right?
Figured you agree!
Seriously, I really wish that you were gonna be here next year! I am really gonna miss you!
You are really someone special to me and I will never forget you. I hope that you will always keep in touch.

Remember all of crazy
folks - momma, Daddy,
Bill, me, Chianti, Dumon,
Magan David, and Ninja.
Please come to see us
sometimes when you can.
Take care and be good,
if not be good at it!

Love,

Natalie Reeves

Have a daguari!

Mark,

I don't know where to begin! Well, first - I'm really glad we've become closer friends. Last year, I thought you were crazy but this year I know just how crazy. Thanks for being so nice and sweet to me. I really enjoy being around you - especially at the Peanut Shack. Thanks for all the diet Pepsi and food. And a special, special thanks for standing over in front of the fudge so much. ^{Ha!} This summer come to see me in Eckerd's with your cute little shorts on! I'll make my day.

Well, I'll stop here but I could go on and on!

Love, Ducica

Class of 1983
May 15, 1983

Well it's been a great year. I wouldn't have enjoyed it as much if I hadn't met you! Well, have to keep in touch after graduation! Even when you go into the air force I expect to hear from you every once in a while. Thanks for all the laughs, you cheered me up on my sad days. I'll never forget decorating for the prom (aww!) and our hammering at all the time. I will also never forget sitting at the Coodie Gallery! You are a great guy and you have a terrific personality. I think we should take another vote for friendliest and wisest! You deserve those! Never forget me, Cause I won't forget you! Well I'm running out of space! Best of luck in all you do. Love ya,
D.S. Love Ram & Oww. Rosemary

P.S. I really wanted you to write in my yearbook first!

Mark,

Do gigolo's get lonely too? we sure danced
A LOT together. And I hope we'll have lots of other dances together. I really have enjoyed the crazy times we shared at Oliver Hardie's. (That big ol fat man on the window) you're such a fun person to be around.

I've had so many laughs with you. You've become so dear to me. I love ya.

Don't think that nobody likes ya (girls) cause I think you're irrisistable (whatever) One day you'll find the girl who's right for you. ... But you better not forget about your little TRISHA. Cause she'll never forget about you.

When I come back from JAPAN you better be ready to dance cause we're going downtown together & get blitzed away.

Don't forget

Do you plan to attend college? Of those surveyed, 64% said yes, 27% no, and 9% maybe.

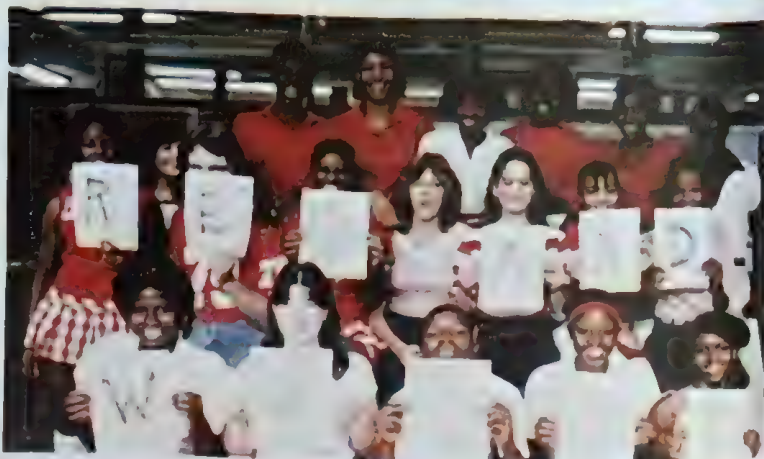

Impressions of life intermingle with childhood memories wherever and whenever people progress in their journey. Friendships grow, love matures, people unite, harmony is established. Each person finds his place in the total. The world awaits . . .

BRAVE WAVE SWEEPS BHS

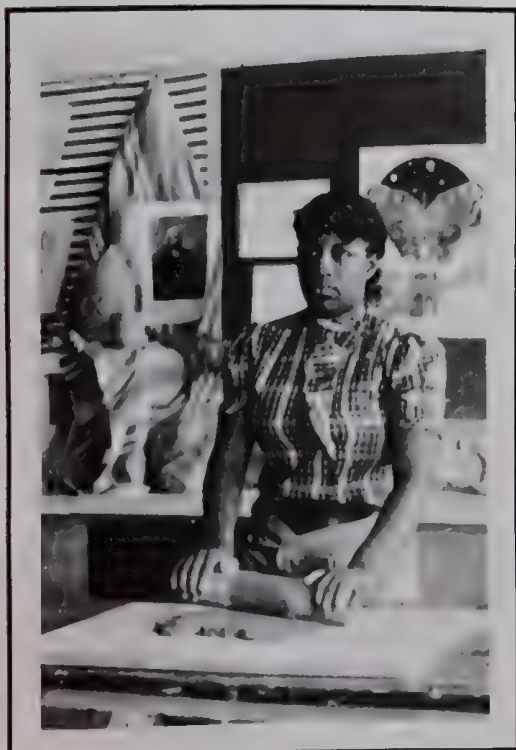

An overwhelming majority of Baldwin's student body showed the spirit of the Brave at our first pep rally. An incredible 92% of the students wore red and white—becoming part of a unified effort—striving to win by exhibiting school spirit and team pride.

WE'VE GOT THE SPIRIT OF THE BRAVE

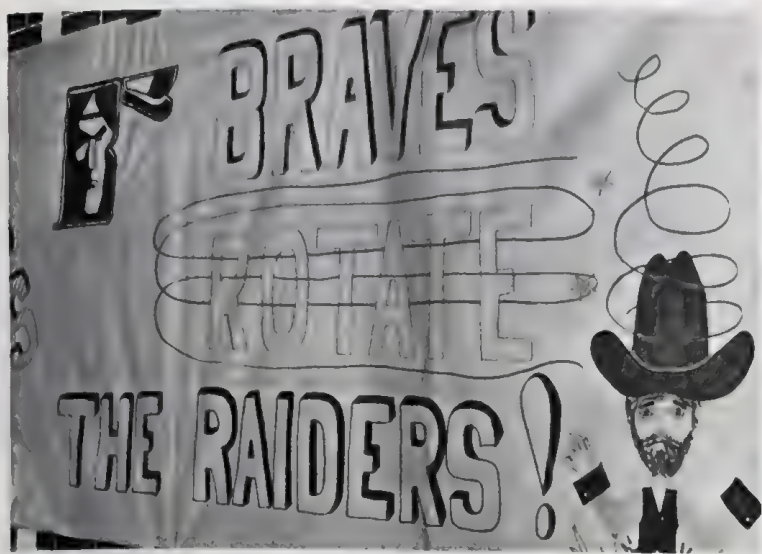

Here's to you BRAVES! All of us are Braves. Each one of us: not just the football players, or the cheerleaders, but all of us. Thanks to a winning football season, the enthusiasm was high for the 1982 Homecoming Spirit Week.

Activities began on November 1 when we raided our closets in search of the tackiest clothes available. We began a new tradition at B.H.S.—Punk Rock Day. We saw everything from mini-skirts to leg warmers and tights, from whips and chains to exotic makeup. In keeping with the tradition, we honored Opposite Sex Day, 50's Day, and, of course, Red and White Day. Mr. 99¢, a male Beauty Contest, sponsored by the Varsity cheerleaders, provided us with many laughs, not to mention new outlooks on a few courageous B.H.S. males. Congratulations to Kenny Devero, Mr. 99¢ 1982

Finally November 5th arrived—the highlight of football season—Homecoming 1982. The entire red and white student body packed the gym for our last pep rally of 1982 to witness the Northeast Raiders' funeral service. The Class of 1983 was the winner of the Spirit Jug. Following school, the streets of downtown Milledgeville were invaded by hundreds of screaming Braves. Despite freezing temperatures, we taught the Raiders who was boss. That night, we were the victors with a 35 to 28 victory. All of the tensions of selecting the queen climaxed at half-time. Congratulations went out to Lisa Webb, 1982 Homecoming Queen. And then of course there was the last minute rush to find a date for the dance.

Congratulations to every Brave who participated in Spirit Week! We will remember it for years to come.

Thank,

I have really enjoyed knowing you. I'm so glad that you "came back to us" this year.

You amaze me --- you always have a positive attitude. We all enjoy your marvelous sense of humor and friendliness.

Thank you for being the "founding father" of E.B.Y. Day. It has meant so much to me.

Take care of yourself and remain the super-person that you are.

ATHLETICS

"If we can get going early in the season, then we can be tough. If we win a couple of games and get our confidence up, then we can do it," said Coach Rusty Atkinson at the opening of the 1982 football season.

Baldwin began its 1982 season with a decisive 24-8 victory over Kendrick High School of Columbus. The Braves' awesome defense held Kendrick to 50 yards, while the offense gained 267 yards. In the first home game, Baldwin routed Hancock Central 47-0, to improve their record 2-0.

The major accomplishment of the 1982 Braves' season was beating teams that, in the past, had given them no consideration. The first game of the revenge was against Peach County. Despite rainy weather, four turnovers, and 115 yards in penalties, the Braves edged by Peach County 14-7. The following week in Washington County, Baldwin exploded in the second half, scoring all 35 points and boosting their season record to 4-0. The Central-Macon game, the most exciting of Baldwin's season, was referred to as "The Battle of the Unbeaten." Baldwin stopped Central on a two-point conversion attempt with 1:21 remaining on the clock to win 20-19 and improve their record to 5-0—the best in Baldwin's history. After this win, Baldwin sprang to seventh in the state rankings. At that mid-season point, the offense averaged 28 points per game and the defense allowed only 9.6 points per game.

In a crucial game against Northside of Warner Robins, the Braves met their first defeat in a 13-7 loss. Baldwin outgained Northside by 54 yards, but two big plays cost the Braves the game. Coming off that first loss, the Braves blasted Columbus 39-6 on home turf, making their record 6-1. The following week, the Braves returned to Warner Robins to play the 1981 National Champion Demons, who had averaged an astounding 57 points in their previous games. In a tough game, Warner Robins came out on top 16-12, giving the Braves a 6-2 season record. Baldwin lost the two games in Warner Robins by a combined 10 points—each time by a touchdown or less.

BEAT 'EM; BUST 'EM IT'S BECOMING OUR CUSTOM

After an open weekend, the Braves regained their composure by beating Southwest-Macon 31-20. Homecoming, the season finale, was celebrated with a 35-28 victory over Northeast-Macon. In these two final games, Baldwin's offense gained an impressive total of 884 yards.

The Baldwin Braves completed the 1982 season with an 8-2 overall record—the best in Baldwin's history.

This year the Baldwin Braves had several players named to the Union Recorder All City-County Football team. Making the Offensive team were quarterback John Thomas; running backs Darron Blassingame, William Little, and Alfred Hill; tackles Derrick Barnes and Bobby Knox; guard Malcom May; tight end Edward Harden; and split end Herman Barron. John Thomas was named the Most Valuable Player as well as being named to the All Middle Georgia Squad and honorable mention for the All-State Squad. Named to the Defensive team were linebackers Curtis Cleveland, Stacy Jenkins, and Troy Williams; defensive end Doug West; defensive tackle Sammy Gendraw; and cornerback Hardy Knox. In addition, Troy Williams was named the Defensive Player of the Year.

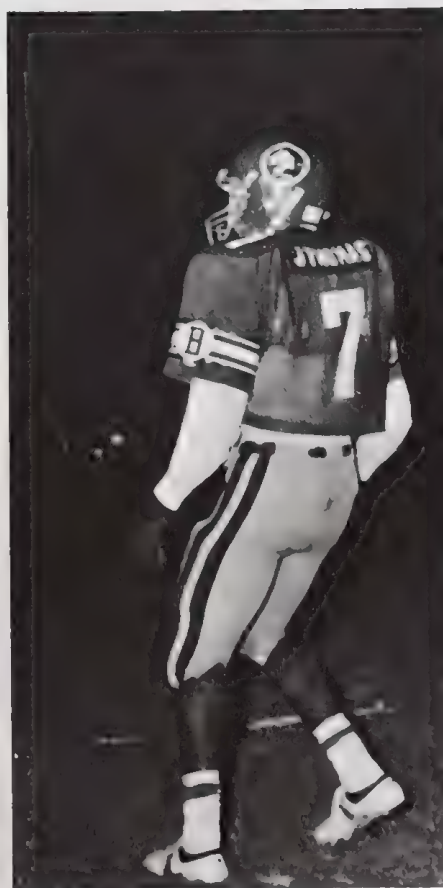

Macon Telegraph's Prep Honor Roll of the Week

"On a night of many big victories, none was more important or shocking than Baldwin's 20-19 decision over previously unbeaten and fourth-ranked Central of Macon. The victory put the No. 9 Braves, now 4-0 and sure to rise in the new AAAA top ten poll, at the forefront of the Region 2-AAAA East race."

"They have players who have started for four years. They have experience."

"We take pride in our offense and defense."

"They (Baldwin) come out with fire. They bring a lot of intensity into the game."

"We want to learn after every game."

"If we win it, that's great; if we don't, we don't."

"You get to the point where you are tired of being second."

BRAVES

"When you play a team like Baldwin, you have to be sharp."

"We're improving every game."

"We have seven players that can take us a long way."

"We're a step or two ahead of the stage where I thought we'd be. We have some talented people."

"If we continue to play as well as we have, we have a chance."

"It's a pleasure to be so far away from home and still be able to win."

"We're staying in games because we're playing good defense."

The Baldwin High wrestlers were much improved over last year's 4-5 team. The team returned several starters this year, and a few new faces were added in the upper weight divisions. The Braves were in two tournaments in 1983, the Troup County Tiger Tourney and the Southwest Invitational Wrestling Tournament. In both, the Braves captured third place. Also, several wrestlers brought home individual trophies from these tournaments. The wrestlers finished the season with a combined record of 9 wins and 1 loss.

Baldwin's cheerleaders had plenty to cheer about this year with an 8-2 football record. These dedicated girls attended the National Cheerleaders Association Camp July 25-28, in Knoxville, Tennessee. The cheerleaders received a spirit stick and an overall superior rating. These girls (and guys) spent many long, hard hours and endured extreme temperatures to prepare chants, cheers, and towering stunts. In addition to performing at games, pep rallies, and various school functions, they had the honor of cheering for the Boys All-Star basketball game in Atlanta's Omni. New white uniforms and two bouncers (alias male cheerleaders) gave Baldwin's cheerleaders the spirit to support a winning season.

In Memory of ...
Tod Carnes
December 18, 1964—June 4, 1982

Mark,

The last year of high school is always the best. I guess I can say it's been a pretty good one for me. After all I met you, and we are not only ~~friends~~ partners we will stay together too. I am sure that make the your career me a light

SENIORS

you will meet account, thank because you person and

I really admire you. You have always managed to make me laugh no matter what. I hope when we leave the planet, thank and start down that dark path of the cruel world, that I will meet up with you again.

Somehow
I know I will.

Good Luck.

Love,
always,

Jackie

IN MEMORY OF ...
Henry Liggins
October 31, 1964-August 18, 1982

Production of the 1983 LEGEND began in the summer of 1982. On July 11-15, we attended the Herff-Jones workshop at Bryan College in Dayton, Tennessee. We began the school year with aspirations of making this edition of the LEGEND the one to remember. Many long nights were spent, alone and together, drawing layouts, writing copy, or completing typesheets, while neglecting our calculus homework!

First and foremost, we would like to thank each other—through unending disagreements, our friendship was tested and strengthened. A tremendous amount of credit goes to our patient sponsor, Susan Joris, who was often tempted to change her name and ignore our continuous call of "Susan . . . HELP!" Special thanks to John Dennis for his time and photography skills. His efforts can be found throughout this book. THE UNION RECORDER deserves much credit for contributing pictures for the sports section. Congratulations to the few dedicated staff members and photographers—your reward is self-explanatory. Final thanks go out to Glen Roberson—alias Herff-Glen—our Herff-Jones representative, who tolerated our outrageous ideas and guided us through difficult times when we needed his professional advice.

We have tried to preserve an entire year of rushing to class, studying for tests, yelling at games, practicing after school, and making lasting friendships. It is not possible to include everything that has touched our lives in the past year, but it is our hope that we have captured enough of the "Spirit of the Brave" so that each of you who reads this book will find something special that, in the years to come, will cause you to say—

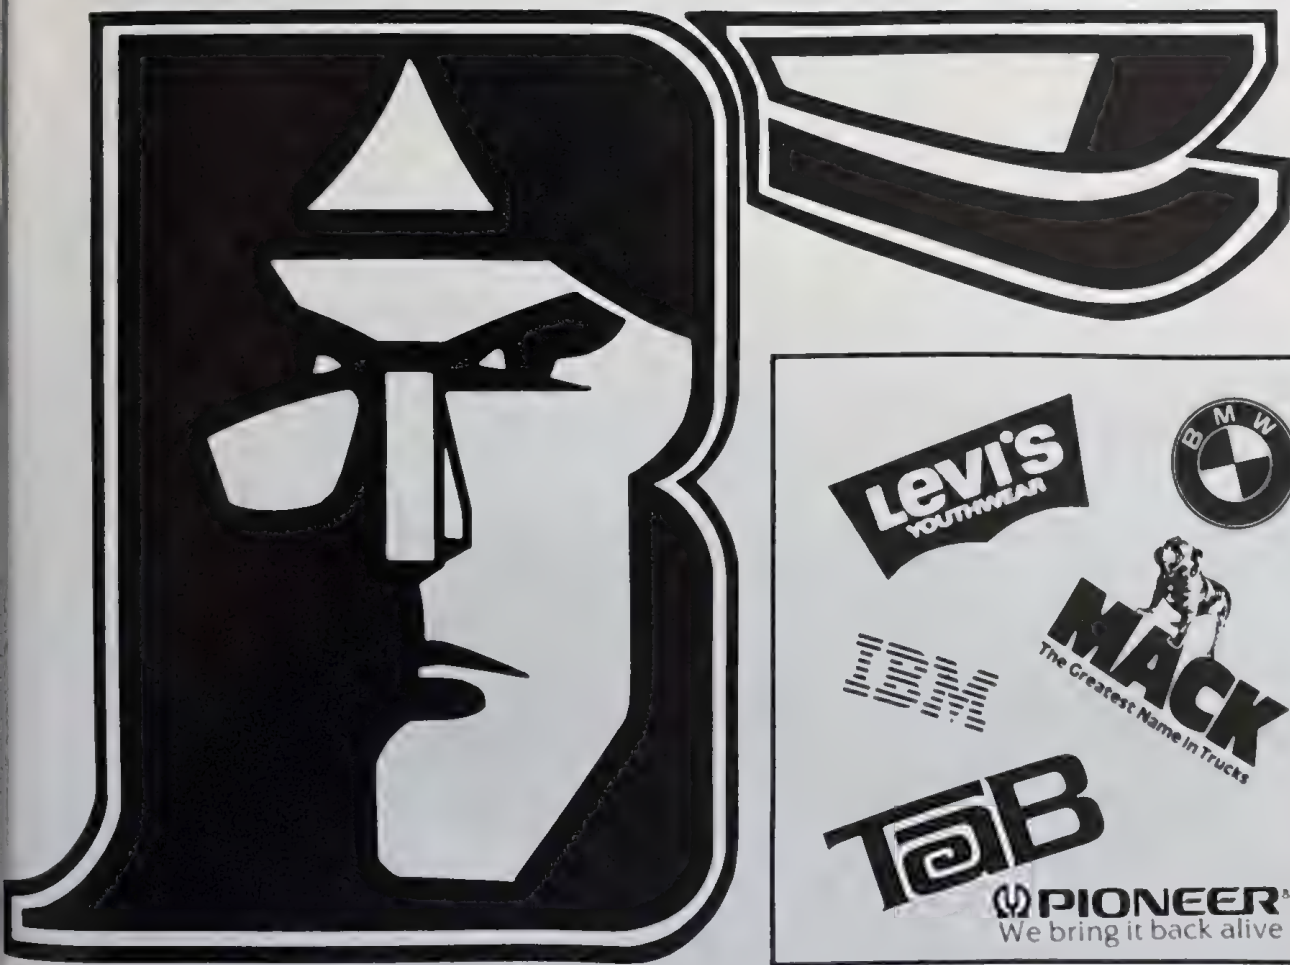

"Remember When . . . ??"

Hi Chick,

First I'd like to tell you to "fare" this and "underline" that and consider "xxx" communist propaganda. And remember our "latest" yong": We're going Chinese. Gosh I love it. I can see you laughing in the floor now, reminiscing our Senior Language class. It was fun through the term paper. I've had so much fun this year wish I could say it started when I met you. (Ha! Ha) I don't want to get mushy and say something like you're a fun person, with

 Mr. Anthony T. Williams
 (Black Guy)

Mark Baby
 - we certainly changed since last year don't you think?
 We've gotten a whole lot closer than I ever thought we would. I'm glad we pulled on friendship back together - because clearly do love you. I love the way you make me feel - which is very happy!
 you make me laugh and can get me to smile when other people can't. And sometimes I don't know what I would do without my great big hug after lunch everyday. Also ahead a lot of serious times too. I'm thankful for that too, because it helps me know that you are aware that clearly do care about you.
 I want you to know that I am behind you 100% in your decisions about your life (and the year after that & soon) you may be making a mistake, but I'm with you on whatever you decide to do with your future. I can hardly wait until we're both gone off so we can be per-pals! And I promise I'll keep you writing.
 Well, what's your really in a nut - you're just gained a permanent friend! ☺ Please don't ever stop telling me dirty jokes, hugging me, greeting me, or keeping my nose. I love it when you kiss my nose! (or baby?)
 I love you!

mark, believe I can't believe you're leaving us this year! I can't miss you! We've drawn each other since I was in the 7th grade you remember when we use to like each other?
 That's been so long ago. I've still got those letters you wrote me! We had some good times on that bus. And one of us is ^{now} a mature adult. Stat! Stat!
 back! I missed you when you moved anyway stay sweet, cute, etc etc and call me

Mark,

I don't even know where to begin. I guess I could start with you moving back. I'm so glad you moved back - I missed you so much when you were gone. This school year has been great! And you've been one of my very best friends - even though you are dumb and get sunburned and peel! But you're still a great guy! Can't wait till Nat'l Convention. Six Flags will be fun! Mark - we've got to keep in touch after you graduate! I sure am going to miss you next year! Well, I know you'll do well in life and the Air Force. December isn't too far away - well, $\frac{1}{2}$ a year. Anyway, stay crazy and have fun!

Lyla'b,

Janice

P.S. Next time I go to Burger King, I expect a bag full of French fries!

P.S.S. Hope you have a happy graduation night - sorry I won't be there - but I'll be thinking about you!
